3 The Scholar is being paid a liberal Scholarship and in addition Messrs K. S. Arjan & Co have been paid a handsome fee for training him - The cost of the books he may require should be met by him and in return for the fee paid to Messrs Arjan & Co they must be able to also furnish him with books for reference & use also - Under these circumstances it is not expedient for Govt to incur a further Exp^{re} of Rs 500 as is suggested.

4 The scholar should have sat for the Exns in Parts I & II at the end of the first year - It is not clear why he has gone up only for Part I which is of a very minor character comprising only a few subjects in ordinary Mathematics

5 The Sec^y is a difficult one and M^r K. S. Iyer told me sometime ago that a boarding house life on the part of the scholar will not tend to success in Sec^y & good training. The scholar must live separately with a cook & servant and fairly comfortably. For this Rs. 100/- a month is not too much in Bombay. The scholar cannot be expected to purchase costly books out of that. We are economizing as far as possible by training him in India upto the middle of his course. If he had gone to England from the beginning he would have been drawing Rs. 250/- a month instead of Rs. 100/- a month for the last 12 months or so. Moreover the books will be useful to us in the Comptroller's offi & in the Insurance offi. Under these circumstances the purchase of books upto Rs. 500/- for the scholar may be sanctioned.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith for the information of Government a copy of the letter of the 5th July 1915, received from Messrs. K. S. Aiyar & Co., Incorporated Accountants (London), Bombay, intimating the success of Mr.B. Lakshmana Rao M.A., the Mysore Scholar studying Actuarial Science under them in Part I of the Institute of Actuaries Examinations held this year, and suggesting that a number of text-books and Actuarial Journals required by the Scholar for study for Examination in Part II of the said Examinations to be held in Bombay in April next costing, perhaps, a little more than Rs.500/- might be purchased at once from State Funds and supplied to him subject to their return after the completion of the Acturial course.

2. The success of the scholar in the examination for which he went up is gratifying and he deserves every encouragement. I beg to recommend that the books may be purchased for him as recommended by Messrs. K. S. Aiyar & Co., their cost being met from the grant under "18 Education (19) Scholarships (v) Actuarial and Accountancy and Banking Scholarships" in the current year's Budget. The scholar will be asked to return the books and journals to my office Library after his course is finished. The favor of very early orders is requested as loss of Letter dated the 5th July 1915 from Messrs. K. S. Aiyar & Co., 65, Apollo Street, Bombay, to the Comptroller, Mysore Government, -- Bangalore.

We have the pleasure to report that MR. LAKSHAMANA RAO, M.A., the Mysore Scholar, studying Actuarial Science under us, has been declared to have passed Part I of the Institute of Actuaries Examinations held this year. If his health had been better, he would have -- secured a First Class.

2. He will appear for the Examination in Part II to be held in Bombay in April next. He requires a number of costly textbooks and Actuarial Journals for the same. He can order the whole lot of them at once if you can sanction the payment from State Funds, of the cost of these books.

3. Another alternative is to authorise the purchase of the necessary books for your State Library, lend them to Mr. Lakshamana Rao till he completes his Actuarial course here and in England, and then to order the books to be restored to your Library.

4. We recommend that a sum of RUPEES FIVE HUNDRED be sanctioned for this purpose, though, later on, some additional amount will become necessary.

It is understood that the course of training ~~in~~ already in Bombay by the Lakshman Rao is costly for which the Scholarship of Rs 600 would just suffice & that therefore the Scholar cannot be expected to purchase the costly books necessary for the course of study out of the Scholarship of Rs 600. The Comptr accordingly recommends that Rs 600 may be sanctioned for the purchase of books subject to their being returned to Govt after
